Sheba's Big Day

Last summer, grandma's cat had kittens.

It was great cause we were on vacation visiting her.

Sheba had her kittens the day we got there. She was acting strange. Dad helped her and built a bed of rags. Then she had her kittens. We named the last one Tippy.

Grandma kept Tippy and gave the rest of them away. I can't wate to visit grandma again. Do you think Tippy might have kittens too.
